I/We, (the individuals named below):

1. Consent to PGG Wrightson Turf (PGW Turf) and its employees and authorised agents taking and publishing photographic images of me and my property (inclusive of all landscape scenery, buildings and fixtures) for the purposes of packaging, marketing, advertising and promoting PGW Turf and any of its businesses, subsidiaries, products or services and consent to the use of printed or electronic matter used in conjunction with such images.
2. Acknowledge that PGW Turf will own the copyright of any such photographic images taken for such purposes and irrevocably waive to PGW Turf all copyright and moral rights in such images under the Copyright Act 1994 or otherwise.
3. Acknowledge that I will not receive any payment from/for the use of such images.
4. Confirm that I/we have the requisite power and authority to grant PGW Turf the permissions set out in this consent. e) PGW Turf also agrees that it will only include photographic images in new printed matter or electronic matter for a period of 10 years, although once printed the images are permanent. It is understood and acknowledged that consideration for any extension to this Consent is to be agreed between the parties, separate from this Consent.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Do all entries have to be submitted via email?

No we can take exceptions, call Leo Noordanus on 027 261 7592 to arrange another option. Otherwise, ask your Territory Manager.

How many times can I submit a photo?

Each person is welcome to submit as many photos as they wish.

What date do entries close?

5pm 13th September 2024.

Do I have to be a PGG Wrightson Turf customer to enter?

No, any amateur photographers, whether a PGG Wrightson Turf customer or not, can enter.

Can the photo be of anything?

No, it must have some relevance to the New Zealand Turf Industry, and be in a specified category.

Why do you need high resolution images?

The calendar is a large printed document. Because the calendar images will be enlarged, photographs need to be taken and submitted at the highest possible quality.

How do I know if my camera can take high resolution images?

Refer to your camera manual and follow the instructions. The image quality on your camera will need to be at a setting higher than 2400 x 1600 pixels.

If my image is portrait can I still enter it?

Yes you can, although with portrait photos your entry may not be accepted.

Can PGG Wrightson Turf use my photo for promotional purposes?

Yes. As per the terms and conditions, by entering the competition you are giving PGG Wrightson Turf the right to use your photograph in the PGG Wrightson Turf 2025 calendar and other marketing collateral such as Annual Reports or advertisements.

When can I expect to hear if I am successful or not?

If you were a successful first or second place winner you will be contacted by the 25th September, 2024.

Do I need consent for property?

If your photo is of another person's property, you must have permission to use.

Do I need consent for people?

Yes you will need to have consent of those in the image.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS:

- All entries must be submitted on the 2025 Turf Calendar entry form. Full consent must be gained for property and/or persons in your photo. This consent will cover photos usage rights such as:
